Article 3 - Rules by discipline

To enter the transition zone, each participant will have to present himself to a volunteer or a member of the organization in order to formalize his entry. He will check that the participant has his bib with a visible bib number and that he is compliant with the use of his race equipment. This checkpoint is mandatory to enter the transition zone, and will be lead by a member of the organization.

Headphones are prohibited throughout all disciplines.

- Swimming: All swimming styles are allowed. The use of an official swim cap, provided by the organization, is mandatory. Swimming goggles are allowed.

All artificial aids such as snorkels, flippers, life jackets, swimmies, gloves, paddles, pull buoys or any other equipment to help you float are prohibited, as is the covering of hands and feet.

Article 4 - Registration - Entries

Participants can register online for all races on the Event website (<https://www.latourgenevetriathlon.ch/>) until Friday 5 July 2024, the day before the Event.

Participants are registered in the order in which payments are received. However, a maximum number of participants per race may be set by the Organisation. Once this maximum has been reached, entries will no longer be accepted. If the amount of participants has to be reduced, entries will be prioritized according to the date of entry, on a "first come, first served" basis.

Anyone entering one of the races in the La Tour Genève Triathlon must be well trained and in good health. It is therefore strongly recommended that all participants undergo a medical check-up and seek medical advice before starting.

Incomplete registration forms: For all registration forms that are incomplete when the start number is collected, the participant will not be able to collect his or her start number and will therefore only be able to take part in the Event on presentation of the missing document. No reimbursement will be made in this case.

As all registrations are firm and definitive, no reimbursement will be made in the event of a registration error, unavailability for medical reasons, etc.

Any person transferring their race number to a third party will be held responsible in the event of an accident occurring or caused by the third party during the Event. The Organisation declines all responsibility in the event of an accident of this type.
